Description

With its Danish Honey finish and distinctive angled legs, the Beckett Collection by Harmonia Living is unmistakably modern. Vertical and parallel stiles give the Beckett collection its subtle mission style cues, while simple geometric lines are anod to the mid-century. Hand crafted from grade A teak wood using old world construction techniques such as mortise and tenon and dovetail joinery, the Beckett collection is heirloom in quality. Whether you choose the entire Beckett collection or just a few pieces to mix and match with, the Harmonia Living Beckett collection is the perfect addition to any transitional, contemporary, or mid-century modern home.
